THE SIGN READ OUT OF ORDER.

I guess I should have left building.

but I wanted to check one thing.

I woke up next to the elevator-

I knew I had to make it out of the building....

"You are invited to a party -

"Bring a Fun Fav

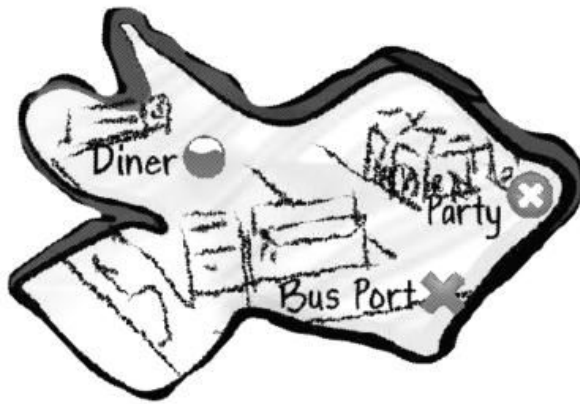

Wait - who gave you this"

Strange it says you have the answer...

...just look on the map.

WHEN I GOT THERE THE HOUSE WAS EMPTY.

Where was the party?

I SHOULD HAVE KNOWN BETTER THAN TO ENTER AN ELEVATOR WITH AN OUT OF ORDER SIGN HANGING FROM THE FRONT

I guess
I just have a misaligned sense of adventure.

The info should have been a simple grab

But there was something that made it a little more complicated...

Shit! I said - just leave it.

...it was as though someone was leaving me well messages

I decided to follow!

She was captivating

A curious girl with a fortune telling die.
By the time I had figured out what she was up to-my fate had been tossed.

Without me noticing

an entity appeared...

and I found she had left without me.

The lights in the house before me gave a cheery glow

...but I could sense danger

the ride in was hell-

I could manage to escape

but had to wait until they left

I stood just out of reach -

I knew that they couldn't see me...

Damn I was shot anyway

I heard something

UHHH...

There was someone else there.

but before I could call out I heard footsteps run...

By then it was too la....
